FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Second Helping: Two Dead Lovers, Dead Funny* showcases humor and heart

July 23, 2024 — Author Kelli Dunham, a nonbinary comedian and former nun, will bring the popular stand-up show Second Helping: Two Dead Lovers, Dead Funny to Oshkosh Public Library on Fri., Aug. 16 at 7 p.m., under the Dome.

This unique tragicomedy delves into Dunham's experiences through two widowhoods before age 40, surviving an exploding knee replacement, and grappling with the challenges of a solo approach to life.

Set against the backdrop of Dunham's irreverent humor and insightful observations, the performance promises an evening filled with laughter and reflection. Second Helping navigates themes of love, loss and the unexpected plot twists that define our lives.

In addition to the show, Dunham will lead a special companion program on Sat., August 17 at 10 a.m. in the library's Lower Level. Sober Scribes: Creative Writing Workshop with Kelli Dunham is a 90-minute workshop open to writers of all experience levels who would like to explore personal storytelling through engaging writing prompts and the option to share their work.

Both events are free and do not require a library card to attend.

Wisconsin native Kelli Dunham is the celebrated author of seven books of humorous nonfiction, known for appearances on Showtime, the Discovery Channel, and stages across the country. Discover more at kellidunham.com.
