

Oshkosh Public Library Teacher Cards & Services

Teacher Cards

Teacher Cards are available to educators at all levels. This includes teachers in public or private schools, student teachers, child care providers and homeschool parents. Cards are mailed to the teacher's home once the application has been verified and processed. Teachers must have a personal library card to apply for a Teacher Card.

Benefits of a Teacher Card:

- Items for personal and professional use are on separate accounts.
- There are NO FINES for late items.*
- Book sets can be checked out for classroom book clubs or other group reading.
- Puppets are available for checkout by teachers. Call 236-5208.

Lost or damaged items are still billed. The library reserves the right to withdraw Teacher Card privileges if the card is repeatedly used for personal rather than curriculum-related items.*

Teacher Collections

- Educators may request collections of up to 30 curriculum-related items.
- Indicate the reading level, format, subject and the date needed.
- Request a collection in person; call 236-5208 or request online at www.oshkoshpubliclibrary.org/kidsandteens/Teachercollectionrequestform.
- Please allow at least two full business days to fill your collection request.
- Demand for popular seasonal books may limit the number of titles available, so submit these types of requests early.

Oshkosh Public Library Teacher Cards & Services

Teacher Cards

Teacher Cards are available to educators at all levels. This includes teachers in public or private schools, student teachers, child care providers and homeschool parents. Cards are mailed to the teacher's home once the application has been verified and processed. Teachers must have a personal library card to apply for a Teacher Card.

Benefits of a Teacher Card:

- Items for personal and professional use are on separate accounts.
- There are NO FINES for late items.*
- Book sets can be checked out for classroom book clubs or other group reading.
- Puppets are available for checkout by teachers. Call 236-5208.

Lost or damaged items are still billed. The library reserves the right to withdraw Teacher Card privileges if the card is repeatedly used for personal rather than curriculum-related items.*

Teacher Collections

- Educators may request collections of up to 30 curriculum-related items.
- Indicate the reading level, format, subject and the date needed.
- Request a collection in person; call 236-5208 or request online at www.oshkoshpubliclibrary.org/kidsandteens/Teachercollectionrequestform.
- Please allow at least two full business days to fill your collection request.
- Demand for popular seasonal books may limit the number of titles available, so submit these types of requests early.

Other Teacher Services

Schedule a tour for your class.

Please schedule at least two weeks in advance.

Popular tours include:

Preschool-Grade 5: Presentation with storytime, literacy-based craft or activity, refresher on library rules, tour of Children's Department appropriate for age level. May include instructional use of website and online catalog for older children.

Grades 6-12: Presentation with book talk or other literacy activity, refresher on library rules, tour of teen area and other areas of library appropriate to students' age. May include instruction on use of website and online catalog.

Special tours might include: Using the Dewey Decimal System or using the online catalog to locate items; local history including a tour of the library's historic Waters Building. Other customized visits may be planned in advance to meet class needs.

Invite library staff to visit your classroom.

Request a book talk, storytime, or summer reading promotion. Invite us to participate in school literacy events or community information fairs.

Questions?

Contact us (920)236-5208 or visit www.oshkoshpubliclibrary.org

The Oshkosh Public Library has programs and special events for children and families all year long. Keep up with library activities and share these opportunities with your students and families!

NEWSLETTER

Visit our website to sign up for our eNewsletter.

Other Teacher Services

Schedule a tour for your class.

Please schedule at least two weeks in advance.

Popular tours include:

Preschool-Grade 5: Presentation with storytime, literacy-based craft or activity, refresher on library rules, tour of Children's Department appropriate for age level. May include instructional use of website and online catalog for older children.

Grades 6-12: Presentation with book talk or other literacy activity, refresher on library rules, tour of teen area and other areas of library appropriate to students' age. May include instruction on use of website and online catalog.

Special tours might include: Using the Dewey Decimal System or using the online catalog to locate items; local history including a tour of the library's historic Waters Building. Other customized visits may be planned in advance to meet class needs.

Invite library staff to visit your classroom.

Request a book talk, storytime, or summer reading promotion. Invite us to participate in school literacy events or community information fairs.

Questions?

Contact us (920)236-5208 or visit www.oshkoshpubliclibrary.org

The Oshkosh Public Library has programs and special events for children and families all year long. Keep up with library activities and share these opportunities with your students and families!

NEWSLETTER

Visit our website to sign up for our eNewsletter.