MEMORANDUM & REQUEST FOR BOARD ACTION

DATE: August 29, 2024

TO: Oshkosh Public Library Board FROM: Darryl Eschete, Library Director SUBJECT: Library Custodian Position

I propose a transition from our existing external cleaning service to employing a full-time, in-house custodian. This proposal comes after careful consideration of our library's unique needs and the desire to enhance our facility's cleanliness and maintenance.

Over time, it has become evident that our current cleaning requirements demand a more tailored approach than what we are presently receiving by outsourcing. Without a major increase in cost, we could:

- Better Ensure Consistent Quality-- By hiring our own custodian, we can ensure consistent and high-quality cleaning standards that align more perfectly with the library's needs.
- Increase Flexibility-- An in-house custodian would provide the flexibility to address immediate cleaning needs and adjust schedules as necessary, ensuring that our library remains in optimal condition at all times.
- Enhance Accountability-- Direct employment would enable better supervision and accountability, ensuring that our cleaning standards are met consistently.

Attached find a position description created with the assistance of City of Oshkosh Human Resources Generalist Danielle Hoeper. Also, in a July 17 discussion with Human Resources Manager Michelle Behnke, she and I discussed estimates of the total annual cost of the position and, depending on the level of health benefits that might be selected, the cost of the position is estimated in a wide range between $48,000 per year (no benefits) to $73,000 (full family coverage), adding something of an element of uncertainty that is unavoidable. Our current annual contractual services costs for custodial service is $60,000.

This position is to be included in my personnel budget requests for the 2025 fiscal year in coming weeks.

I ask the Board for a motion to approve the attached position description and re-allocation of the Third Party Contracted Services budget for the remainder of FY 2024.

MEMORANDUM & REQUEST FOR BOARD ACTION

DATE: August 29, 2024

TO: Oshkosh Public Library Board
FROM: Darryl Eschete, Library Director
SUBJECT: Director Moving Expenses

At the June 27 regular meeting of the library board, the question of relocation expenses for the new library director arose. Given the challenges of the local housing market, Trustee Perlman asked that a motion be brought before the board allowing for relocation expenses at the higher tier outlined in the offer letter of November 16, 2023. Quote:

"The Board is also prepared to offer reimbursement for your moving expenses up to $10,000 or actual costs (whichever is less) if you move within Oshkosh city limits or the surrounding townships. Or, up to $5000 or 50% of actual costs if you move outside the city limits or surrounding townships."

With that background and acting at Trustee Perlman's request, I ask for a motion that relocation expenses for the new library director be allocated at the higher tier outlined in the offer letter of November 16, 2023.

MEMORANDUM & REQUEST FOR BOARD ACTION

DATE: August 29, 2024

TO: Oshkosh Public Library Board FROM: Darryl Eschete, Library Director

SUBJECT: Endowment Request Round Five—Branded Materials

Trademarked materials, such as coffee cups, bags, and hats, are essential for a rebranding effort because they promote the library organization's identity, helping to establish a clear and unified message. This is especially important as the brand is launched, helping to introduce not only the new visual identity, but often serving as an entrée to conversations about the brand story and what it means to the library's future.

For Board members, staff, and stakeholders, these materials serve as tangible representations of the organization's new direction, reinforcing the branding goals and fostering alignment across all levels. Consistent branding in internal and external communications also builds trust and recognition, facilitating a smoother transition and ensuring that the new brand is embraced and understood by all key audiences.

I ask the Board for a motion to approve the use of $2000 of Library Development endowment funds for the purpose of purchasing materials related to the re-branding effort.

Oshkosh Public Library Highlights August 2024

- 1. An evening built around creativity and connection was embraced with enthusiasm on Aug. 3, when Oshkosh Public Library presented Art After Hours. A crowd of nearly 200 teens and adults admired community artwork, indulged in hands-on creative activities, sipped mocktails and sampled a variety of fun carnival-style treats and just enjoyed each other's company under the Dome. Feedback was clear: Oshkosh wants more experiences for adults that entertain, actively engage and build community. A cross-departmental team brought a full spectrum of insights, experiences and talents to the development of this end-of-summer event.
- 2. Several events leading up to Art After Hours offered community members opportunities to experience art in fun and whimsical ways and create a piece for the Aug. 3 event.
 - a. Twenty-five kids indulged their imaginations on July 30 when OPL offered Drop In & Create. The library pulled art supplies from all corners of the building to fuel the creativity of participants who took art wherever their inspiration led them.
 - b. A staff member who volunteers at Day by Day Shelter did a collage-making activity there and the collages were displayed at Art After Hours.
 - c. At Bad Art Night, adults started with donated thrift store art and made it their own sometimes adding figures and other small touches and sometimes completely recreating the piece. And yes it was as much fun as it sounds!
- Staff were at the Aug. 3 Farmers Market, giving summer reading a boost, handing out Take & Make kits to promote the Art After Hours event and having conversations with people about the library and beyond.
- 4. An exotic pet surrender event at the library on Aug. 10 was a learning experience for those in attendance that resulted in seven animals being surrendered. Conducted by J&R Aquatic Rescue, in partnership with Pet Advocacy Network and the University of Wisconsin Sea Grant/Water Resources Institute, this type of event offers community members the opportunity to responsibly surrender exotic pets and connects with those who might want to adopt them.
- 5. Election day saw 569 people come in to vote at OPL. Staff help to make this a welcoming polling place for the City of Oshkosh, with friendly greetings, flexible accommodations and willing assistance with tasks such as printing voter registration papers. Libraries are a cornerstone of democracy and OPL is proud to support our community in exercising the right to vote.
- 6. When Oshkosh wants to know more, Oshkosh Public Library satisfies their curiosity. Community Engagement Librarian Sandy T. tapped into the world's Olympics obsession with a Paris Olympic Travelogue on July 16, delivered to a gathering of the Wisconsin Area Retired Teachers Association and repeated at Gabriel's Villa. While the rest of us were focused on medal counts, Sandy added fascinating facts about Paris, past Olympics and other tidbits that only a seasoned librarian could unearth.

Another talk presented at Bella Vista recently focused on the History of Menominee Park. Developing talks based on community requests is making OPL a go-to resource for curious community groups thirsty for information and enrichment.

- 7. As planes filled the skies over Oshkosh on July 25, guest speaker Francis Gary Powers, Jr. gave a captivating talk under the Dome on the Cold War, its veterans, espionage, and his father, CIA U-2 pilot Gary Powers. Shot down over the Soviet Union in 1960, Gary Powers' story was immortalized in Steven Spielberg's 2015 Cold War thriller Bridge of Spies. Twenty-eight people attended the special program.
- 8. Author and comedian Kelli Dunham elicited laughter and tears in a performance under the Dome on Aug. 16. Taking the audience through her journey of turmoil and loss, Second Helping: Two Dead Lovers, Dead Funny, was described by one person as "a master class about giving and receiving help." Twenty-eight people attended the performance, which Dunham followed up with a Sober Scribes writing workshop and an open mic on Saturday.
- 9. A Teen Lock-In on July 26 offered teens the opportunity to experience the library after hours and read, play games and connect. It was a small group, but a great opportunity for the teens who attended to claim the library as their own for a few hours, browse books and other resources and connect in a welcoming space.
- 10. A small office space on the library's first floor is now available for use by community groups seeking to connect the public with the resources they offer. Feeding America will be the first group to use the space for this type of outreach, on Sept. 4. Community members can drop in from 1 to 4 p.m. to learn about FoodShare, ACCESS (health care benefits), resources from the Wisconsin Department of Health Services and Feeding America volunteer opportunities.

Library Director's Report

July-August 2024

Since the special Board meeting on August 2, library staff and I have been at work on the following:

- Re-branding—This work is rapidly approaching the "reveal" stage for stakeholders and staff, as would have been discussed earlier in this meeting. On August 22 and 23, there was photography and videography work done here in the building as part of this roll-out effort and, by the time of this meeting, the Board should have seen the results.
- ARPA Projects—The white noise system is installed and functional. Also, I, Lisa Voss and Pete Hodge (IT Specialist for Winnefox) have had preliminary meetings with Visix, a major vendor for institutional digital signage with whom we are working to install digital signs in strategic locations around the building with a secure network-based content management system. This installation is planned for early fall. Staff have identified some furniture for re-upholstering and some of those pieces that had been off site being reupholstered have been returned and are in the Reading Room. All projects are expected to meet the year-end deadline.
- Recruitment/New Employees—Head of Youth Services Marie Boleman, Head of Adult Services Joe Bongers and Youth Services Librarian Kallie Schell worked together to recruit two new Youth Services Librarians. We applied a somewhat different approach to recruitment, including the use of a trusted psychometric assessment designed especially for libraries. Gwin Pearce began work on August 19 and Eliana Luke is scheduled to begin September 4. We will introduce and highlight these new employees at a future meeting of the Board.
- Staff Team Projects—Staff continues to work on team projects. The website team, especially, has done excellent work and a new, much improved website is on track to be complete by the end of October. That team—comprised of Laura McDonald, Kim Hoffman, Sarah Read, Kong Thao, Lisa Voss, Emillie Cieslewicz, Kallie Schell and Winnefox consultants Jay Harland, Marcy Cannon and Pete Hodge—should be commended for the pace, intensity and quality of the work they have done. Other staff have played strong supporting roles in this effort and deserve recognition as well. I expect that the new website rollout on 10/24 will be met with user enthusiasm.
- Roof Replacement—By the time of this meeting, the roof project should be complete. Several hard rains and other weather incidents in August have given us confidence that the major leak where the new and old library structures meet has been repaired. In the course of the work, however, a minor leak on the opposite side of the building (one causing only slight and intermittent dripping into the attic) has been discovered and is being actively monitored.
- Budget Preparation—By the time of this meeting, a preliminary budget for 2025 will have been submitted to the City. As of this writing, several clarifying meetings with the City Manager's Office and Finance Department are planned, and I will be prepared to discuss more at the Board meeting. Much credit is due to Denise Edwards and Julie Calmes of City Finance, Michelle Behnke of City HR and the City Manager's Office for their assistance thus far. Clairellyn Sommersmith (Director of Winnefox) and I will have met earlier in the week of this meeting to discuss contractual agreements.
- Leadership Oshkosh—I have been accepted into the 2024-25 Leadership Oshkosh class and attended orientation on August 7. It promises to be a rewarding experience. The kickoff retreat will be September 19 and 20 in Elkhart Lake and meetings will be all-day affairs once per month thereafter until late May 2025. There will be an alumni reception/new class welcome the evening of October 16, 5-7pm.
- OACF Annual Report—As of this writing, the Oshkosh Public Library is scheduled to be the featured community organization in the Oshkosh Area Community Foundation annual report publication.

John V. Nichols Graduate Library Education Scholarship—Emillie Cieslewicz, Digital Services Librarian, is currently enrolled at UW-Madison pursuing her Master's of Library and Information Science. As per prior approvals of endowment spending by the Board in December 2023 and her course load, Ms. Cieslewicz is eligible to receive $1500 of the $2400 approved for 2024.

Respectfully Submitted,

Darryl Eschete
